

WINE MASTER CLASS WITH JEANNIE CHO LEE

LUCARIS, Asia's first world-class luxury crystal wineware, a premium product by Ocean Glass PCL, joined with Jeannie Cho Lee, first Asian Master of Wine to present 'Wine Master Class' and 'Wine Dinners' under the concept "The Perfect Encounter" at the 13th World Gourmet Festival 2012 at Four Seasons Bangkok Hotel recently. As the highlight, LUCARIS invited Jeannie Cho Lee (MW), the award winning author of 'Asian Palate', to conduct a Wine Master Class with LUCARIS, the first Asian lead-free and barium-free crystal wineware by pairing wines of the world (from fin) with modern Asian cuisine. Guests also participated in a blind tasting to experience the aroma, taste, and balance using wineglasses from the latest LUCARIS 'Hong Kong Hip' collection.

Jeannie also collaborated with Executive Chef Galvin Lim from Les Amis Singapore, to create wine dinners with pairings for the Asian palate during the World Gourmet Festival. ■
