PEOPLE WHO MAKE THE TOWN TICK

Princess Anna and Prince Carl-Eugen zu Oettingen-Wallerstein

Royal Toast

GERMAN ROYAL SPECIALITY BEER IS NOW AVAILABLE IN THAILAND

HE FITS THE STEREOTYPE of a European prince: a tall, handsome and charming man who would look good in court uniform. His wife also looks every inch a princess. They are PRINCE CARL-EUGEN ZU OETTINGEN-WALLERSTEIN and PRINCESS ANNA. They own The Prince's Brewery in Germany that produces the 1598 Furst Wallerstein premium beer. Initially available only at the Dusit Thani Hotel, from now on the beer will also be sold in selected outlets in Thailand through FIN wines. A keen polo player, the prince and his wife have participated in horse and elephant polo matches in Thailand and hope to become even more involved. The prince says he and his family have visited this country three times during the last nine months, which shows how much they love coming here. Together with daughter Joanna, last month they played at the King's Cup elephant polo tournament at Anantara Hua Hin, their first time on elephant back.
